

GERMAN WARSHIPS TO LOOK ELSEWHERE FOR THEIR SUPPLIES

Exposure of Destination of Steamships Fram and Sommerstand Cancels Sailings—Captains Tell Their Suspicions.

German warships in South American and West Indian waters which have been coaled and provisioned by vessels out of this port will have to seek other sources for supplies. The diatograph exposure of the destinations of the Norwegian steamships Fram and Sommerstand, now at anchor in the Delaware River, has disclosed the system which made the violation of neutrality possible.

Consul Moe's suspicion was first aroused by Captain Axelsen, of the Fram, and Captain Grinheim, of the Sommerstand. Mr. Bulwara, after notifying their owners, the A. F. Klaviers & Co., of Helsingor, Norway, and E. M. Wraniger & Co., of Christiania, Norway.

Consul Moe's suspicion was first aroused by Captain Axelsen, of the Fram, and Captain Grinheim, of the Sommerstand.

Nothing could be learned of the transaction at the office of William J. Grandfield and Company, 208 Walnut street, today. They are the local agents for the steamships.

Arrangements are now being made for the discharge of the cargoes of the Fram and Sommerstand, and in a few days $20,000 worth of fresh vegetables, which were scheduled for German warships will be dumped back on one of the piers and later delivered to the sailors.

Like "carrying coals to Newcastle" was the carrying of coffee to Brazil by these steamships. Another suspicious incident was the large supply of fresh vegetables taken on board. These aroused the Norwegian skipper's fears. They did not care to risk imprisonment in English or French prisons, but both emphatically declared they feared most for the property of their employees.

STEFANSSON DAIRY TELLS OF HARDSHIPS AND PERILS IN ARCTIC

Year's Wanderings of Canadian Expedition, Until Explorers Reached Flaxman's Island, Alaska, Re-counted.

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 28.—Vivid and fascinating details of the motivations and perils of Arctic exploration are contained in a diary of the Stefansson expedition which has been made public here by Miss Mary Atwood, a friend of Hurl McConnel, private secretary to Explorer Viljar Stefansson and meteorologist of the expedition.

The diary indicates that Stefansson, McConnel and a hunting party left the Katik Katik, September 13, while the vessel was stuck in the ice sixteen miles off shore, and because of the backing up of the ice and bad weather were unable to reach her.

Italy Holds Firm in Neutral Policy; Waits on Turkey.

Overt Acts by Porte Will Mean Rupture of Triple Alliance as Mobilized Army Joins Allies.

GENEVA, Sept. 28.—The possibility that Italy will break its neutrality policy and enter the war on the side of the Allies has been discussed by the apparent effect of the Greek-Bulgarian-Balkan alliance on Turkey's belated intentions, say dispatches from Rome.

Dispatches from Vienna and Trieste tell of preparations by Austria to resist an Italian invasion. Major movements have been made in the Balkans.

While there is no change in the official Italian attitude, there is little doubt that the date for Italy's entry into the war is rapidly approaching.

MYSTERY SHROUDS METHODS OF MEN IN LAND GRAB DEAL

Visits to Property Owners in Vicinity of 21st and Race Streets and Vague Offers to Buy Assume New Significance in Light of Municipal Court Project.

Proposed Purchase of the Magdalen Home Admitted by Those in the Secret to Be Only the "Entering Wedge" in $2,000,000 Building Fund.

Mysterious calls by mysterious men on property owners in the vicinity of 21st and Race streets, the site for the proposed $2,000,000 "marble hall" grab of the Municipal Court, have taken a new meaning to those who entertained the men since the plans of McNichol-Penrose forces have been revealed.

For months before it was even whispered that the Detention House at 231 and Arch streets, built only six years ago, was to be abandoned persons who owned property in the path of the grab have been asked to tell what they would sell for. Sometimes the "agents" have said they represented the city, but more often they have come from "persons who did not want to figure in the transaction until it was closed."

No one knows who these men are. But they have been unsuccessful in most cases, as the neighborhood is made up of thrifty people who saved until they had enough to buy home and who intend sticking to it despite alluring offers to sell.

Some property owners stopped talking very quickly when asked if any one had tried to buy options on their land. Options, like dead man, tell no tales, it has been pointed out. Records at City Hall show the street from the "Marble Hall" property site, would be enhanced in value in the event of the grab being perfected. It is valued now at $800.

At one time the staff was arrested on a charge of criminal libel preferred by Magistrate Thomas W. McFarland, and last May the publishers were reprimanded by Judge Martin, of the Common Pleas Court, for their comment on a damage suit for damages tried before him.
